

Entertainment

An ode of thanks to the maestros! REHMATEIN with the launch of the Jagjit Singh’s brother Kartar Singh

Jul 19, 2014

Saurav Daftary’s initiative is worth accolades in bringing the fraternity close for the well being of the maestros.

The musical evening made up for an eventful day with the launch of legendary Jagjit Singh’s younger brother Shri Kartaar Singh & launch of acclaimed anchor & RJ also heading E- Bizz Entertainment India Pvt. Ltd; Smita Parikh’s book of poetry ‘Main Panth Niharu’.

Joining in the noble initiative was Shri Javed Akhtar Sahab who made his presence felt as the chief guest of honor, also other eminent singers of our music fraternity supported the cause; Sonu Nigam, Javed Ali, sumeet Tappoo, Jaspinder Narula, Suresh Wadkar, Richa Sharma, kavita seth , & Wajid ali

REHMATEIN saw a felicitation of veteran ghazal legend Mr. Rajendra Mehta & Mr. Khayyam Sahab for their outstanding contribution to the music industry with price money of Rs. 2,01,000/- each as a token of appreciation, & also to give sponsorship’s to deserving kids to get trained under the maestros.

The highlight of the evening was the performance by Kartaar Singh which made all present emotional for the strongest resemblance with his voice, the brother got emotional. The Ghazal maestros Anup Jalota, Talat Aziz along with Hariharan performed live on the platform paying tribute to the late Ghazal legend singing famous Ghazals by Jagjit Singh.

This Event is conceptualized & managed by E- Bizz Entertainment India Pvt. Ltd headed by Saurabh Daftary & Smita Parikh who is launched Karttar Singh, younger brother of Shri Jagjit Singh at the fund raiser.

A woman of many faces, Smita Parikh is an RJ, an actor & a singer & now a rising poet launched her book of poetry named Main Panth Niharu at the musical soiree.

Source : Lokesh Shastri