

Big-B launches Destiny album, including Tappoo

Recognised as the biggest album of 2013, DESTINY was launched this week in Mumbai, India by Bollywood legend Amitabh Bachchan at a grand function in Mumbai.

Destiny, featuring Fijian singer Sumeet Tappoo also features three Indian musical pioneers Pankaj Udhas, Anup Jalota and Talat Aziz.

The glitzy event was attended by a who's who list of Mumbai as well as a record number of media representing television, radio, newspapers, magazine and digital forums.

The last to speak, Sumeet spoke about his journey from Fiji to India resulting from his childhood passion for music and his dream to one day sing with the three legends. He offered his heartfelt gratitude to them and music company Saregama for having him as part of this prestigious album. Addressing Mr. Bachchan, Sumeet sincerely thanked him for accepting his invitation and gave a fitting tribute to his childhood hero as "the icon of all icons, the pride of India, and a legend for not only my generation, but the one before, the one after and for many generations to come".

Destiny is available worldwide as well as on iTunes and all music sites globally. - PICTURE N KRAFT MUMBAI
