

need to abide by the k our country can in provided the e necessary changes e the citizens law

g her films, she day what matters socialise or go for parties. I do not have any filmy friends. All my friends are my school days friends. We do hang out at home, chat sometimes and enjoy sharing our experiences.

We also sit at home and watch television. I am very lazy to go out gallivanting. But yes, sometimes we do go out. I love to relax at home."

Amitabh's take on destiny

The veteran actor reveals how music is close to his heart during an album launch

★ LIPIKA VARMA

Amitabh Bachchan happily launched the music album 'Destiny' that features prominent singers like Anup Jalota, Pankaj Udhas and Talat Aziz. Rising singing sensation, Sumeet Tappoo who has also invested his musical talent in the album, sang 'Neela Asman Kho Gaya' from Amitji's 'Silsila' as the legend turned nostalgic.

"I am here for destiny wanted me to belong to this pleasant evening. We have grown hearing the songs of Anoop Jalota. We share a long association. We would hear the Ramcharitramanas in his voice every morning. He is very close to our family and our hearts as well. I may have not shared a personal interaction with Talat Aziz. But he being associated to music, he is however close to every heart," Big B shared and added, "Music is more powerful as it brings one and all closer. Needless to say music is above any personality."

