

ARGENTINA AND MESSI FIND SUPPORT IN BOLLYWOOD

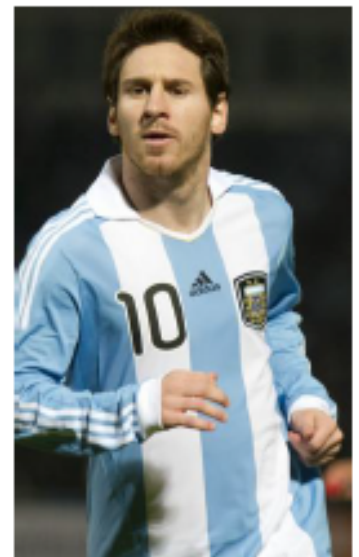

The 2014 FIFA World Cup has gripped India and the entire world with audiences running into the billions by the time tournament is over mid July.

India, in recent times, has developed into a 'football-mad' country with support for 'English Premier League', 'Spanish La Liga' and 'Italian Serie A' growing by the day. But the fan following that has been witnessed this time around in the international edition of the tournament has been unprecedented.

From Amitabh Bachchan to Shah Rukh Khan to Bipasha Basu, all the Bollywood Celebs are openly messaging about the tournament, the games and their teams through Twitter and Facebook.

Of all the teams, Argentina and their talisman Lionel Messi are the favourites of many celebrities. Shah Rukh Khan,

Ranbir Kapoor, Tiger Shroff, Prachi Desai, Bipasha Basu, Saqib Saleem & singer Sumeet Tappoo have all openly declared their passion for the South Americans to win the World Cup!

Football is definitely the flavour of the month!
