Amitabh Bachchan urged people to listen to the album

Megastar Amitabh Bachchan has launched ghazal album "Destiny" and urged people to listen to the album to enjoy its soothing effect.

"Destiny" has brought together the three acclaimed singers - Anup Jalota, Pankaj Udhas and Talat Aziz and is said to be the biggest ghazal album of the year.

"When I listened to it ('Destiny'), it gave immense peace. I would like to urge to all the people here to kindly listen to the beautiful album. It will give you all a lot of peace and a good sleep as well," Amitabh said.

Singer Sumeet Tappoo has also sung for the album, which is being released by Saregama India Ltd.
