

Sumeet Tappoo wins Lions Gold Award for Best Emerging Soulful Singer 2014

MUMBAI: Fiji-born singer, Sumeet Tappoo continues making his mark in the Mumbai music scene.

Hot on the heels of the launch of “Destiny” - an album Sumeet features in alongside Ghazal legends Pankaj Udhas, Anup Jalota & Talat Aziz - Sumeet won the ‘Best Emerging Soulful Singer’ at last night’s prestigious 20th Lions Gold Awards 2014.

The Lions Gold Awards 2014 awards ceremony in Mumbai recognized film and music stars like Bollywood actors Ranveer Singh, Shraddha Kapoor, Aditi Rao, and Anand Rai; and singers Madhushri (female), Ankit Tiwari (male) and Music Director Mithoon.

Winning the best emerging singer award is the perfect start to 2014, says Sumeet.

“With Destiny turning out to be one of the biggest albums in 2013, I am looking forward to this year, especially with my new movie song releases on the horizon,” he says.

Sumeet’s Bollywood debut of romantic numbers is set for release in Bollywood movies later this year.

“Destiny” was launched in November at a glitzy affair at Novotel, Mumbai by Amitabh Bachchan, who recommended the album very highly.

“Destiny” is a milestone for Pankaj Udhas, Anup Jalota and Talat Aziz, who began their careers together 30 years ago and brings the trio together for the first time. It was an honour for Sumeet to be included in this landmark album.

Soon after his MBA graduation in Australia, Sumeet moved to Mumbai to pursue a career in music as a playback singer. His multiple album releases, his ever-growing international fan base and his successful live concerts and performances around the world is testimony to his increasing popularity. Sumeet has also sung alongside industry legends such as Shankar Mahadevan, Hariharan, Suresh Wadkar, Shaan, Sadhna Sargam and others.

End.
